MEMBERSHIP FEE DUE DATE

- Article 3-1 Members shall pay the annual membership fees for the first Organization’s business year, according to the following categories, by the last day of the month following the month in which membership was approved (hereafter, “membership approval date”). From the following Organization’s business year onwards, members shall pay the annual membership fees in full by the last day of the month which follows the final month of the Organization’s business year. In the following categories, the first half of the Organization’s business year refers to the period from April 1 to September 30, and the second half of the Organization’s business year refers to the period from October 1 to March 31 of the following year.

- (1) If the membership approval date falls in the first half of the Organization’s business year, the full amount of the annual membership fees shall be paid.
- (2) If the membership approval date falls in the second half of the Organization’s business year, half of the amount of the annual membership fees shall be paid.

- Article 3-2 If there is a change in membership type, the annual membership fees will be determined as follows:

- (1) As of the date on which the change in membership type is approved, members shall pay the annual membership fees for the new type of membership in accordance with the categories stipulated in Article 3-1, minus the amount which has already been paid towards the fee for the previous membership type.
- (2) The amount stipulated in item (1) above shall be paid by the last day of the month following the month in which the change in membership type took effect.

- Article 3-3 The Annual membership fees, once paid, shall not be refunded by the Organization for any reason.
